whom he had been recommended on his first arrival, says the Philadelphia Times. He was the only boarder, and his landtady and her daughter, who did the general housework, looked upon him as the centre and paragon of all the virtues. In fact it was a subject of comment between mother and daughter that they would take his weekly pay with better heart if Sanftherz only gave them a little more rouble.

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES.

The race for the pennant proceeds vigorously, and the indicator on the dial wabbles with its familiar vibration. By snatching the Giants called the turn on two ground of three of the series. The Giants put up one or their old-time heart-cheering games, and administered a well-defined defeat. The Bostonians failed to make connections with the Fittsburgers, and were rettred for the second time this week.

The two old triends are in company once more, with the Beaneaters in the lead, as usual. If the Glants only get up enough steam to pass Boston's dangerous lead of one point, they might climb higher. The Brids grooms almost won a game from the Windy citys, but were queered in the eighth inning. The Forest Citys and Quakers buttled for eleven innings to no advantage.
